

Welcome to a time of prayer and reflection. Let's be still and recognise that we are in the presence of God who is Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

Today's readings celebrate God's desire for us to have life in all its fullness, God's active power at work to bring life even where it has been lacking. As we come to this time of worship, let us ask God to bring us new life by confessing those times when we have turned away from God's will for our flourishing and seeking healing and reconciliation:

Father, you come to meet us when we return to you:

Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Jesus, you died on the cross for our sins:

Christ, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

Spirit, you give us life and peace:

Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

May the God of love and power forgive you and free you from your sins, heal and strengthen you by his Spirit and raise you to new life in Christ our Lord.
Amen

Let us pray:

Gracious Father,
by the obedience of Jesus
you brought salvation to our wayward world:
draw us into harmony with your will,
that we may find all things restored in him,
our Saviour Jesus Christ.
Amen

From the Gospel according to Mark 5: 21-43

Sermon (see attached text)

Let us pray:

For the unity of the Church in witness and proclamation of the Gospel,
For our Bishops: Robert, Jackie and Nick, that strengthened by the gift of your grace they may draw the church across Devon into closer unity and shared endeavour

For our Mission Community that open to the guidance of the Holy Spirit we be renewed in worship and in encouraging each other to serve our communities with joy

Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer

For the peace and stability of all peoples

For the leaders of the nations that they may seek peace and pursue it in all their policy decisions

For all engaged in bringing healing from Covid 19 and for a fair distribution of the outcome of their efforts

For a fair distribution of the goods of the earth, and a full appreciation of the need to live in sensitive collaboration with all living things for the good of the planet

Lord in your mercy hear our prayer

For a blessing on our homes and all those with whom we share our lives;
for our relations and friends and all whom we love ...;

and for all those who feel isolated and excluded, lacking close family and friends, for that we might help them find a place of welcome and love.

For the sick and suffering and all who minister to their needs ...;

Lord in your mercy hear our prayer

For those we love and see no longer, all who have died recently or whose anniversaries fall at this time, and for those who mourn

Lord in your mercy hear our prayer

Let us commend ourselves, and all for whom we pray,
to the mercy and protection of God.

For the coming of God's kingdom we pray in the words Jesus gave us:
Our Father who art in heaven. Hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread.
Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory. Forever and ever, Amen.

Giving thanks for the communion we share through baptism with one another and with God in Christ Jesus our Lord we make an act of spiritual communion in the words of this prayer:

Thanks be to you, Lord Jesus Christ, for all the benefits you have given me, for all the pains and insults you have borne for me. As I cannot receive you sacramentally today, I ask you to come spiritually into my heart. O most merciful redeemer, friend and brother, may I know you more clearly, love you more dearly, and follow you more nearly, day by day. Amen.

God the Holy Trinity make you strong in faith and love,
defend you on every side,
and guide you in truth and peace;

And the blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit,
be among you and remain with you always.

All Amen.
